

Writing Similes

Name _____ Date _____

Similes are groups of words that compare one thing with another.

Similes use imagery of things which are alike. For example, I flew like a bird. This example really means that the person felt like a bird flying as they ran very fast or jumped off a high wall.

Complete the following sentences with similes. Illustrate your sentences.

I ran like

I kicked like

The flag fluttered like

He fell to the ground like

The car engine roared like

The doorbell sounded like